Music Suggestions for the Funeral Mass

At St. Ambrose a Worship Aid for the congregation will be offered free of charge so that all can participate in the responses and music at Mass. Names of those serving as Lectors, Presenting the Gifts before the Eucharist, Pallbearers and Honorary Pallbearers are also included – please email the correct spellings of all of the names to chuntzinger@cosgriff.org and a final draft will be sent for approval before it is printed (usually the day before).

Because of limited printing facilities at St. Ambrose we use a line-drawing picture of the church on the front cover – we don't print pictures of the deceased because we cannot guarantee they will turn out and if we needed to print in color there would be a charge to offset the high cost of color copies.

Prelude

The Ceremonial of Bishops, the most recent complete liturgical document from the Holy See, instructs that there be silence before the Funeral Mass and instruments be used only to accompany singing. Also, there should be no flowers on the altar (there may be flowers in front of the Altar and off to the side) [#824].

The Lord's Prayer

If sung, the chant setting encouraging the congregations full participation should be employed. A solo setting of the Lord's Prayer during the Funeral Liturgy is not permitted.

St. Ambrose will provide an organist/pianist and a cantor for every funeral. Family members are allowed to sing a liturgical song (Ave Maria) if they are able. Unless they are trained Cantors at other parishes they may not Cantor the entire Mass. It is very difficult to judge whether a family member may be overcome with emotion while singing and because of this we encourage that the St. Ambrose Cantor sing the entire Mass. The family's main role in the Mass is to participate in the Mass and grieve the loss of their loved one.
